

LCC Membership Terms and Conditions

'LCC' means Livingston Camera Club

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the data you provide will be held by LCC and managed in accordance with the club's privacy policy.

'Membership Year' means the 12 month calendar period from the 1 September in each year. You will need to pay an amount for your membership 'subscription', which covers the day that you join until the 31 August the following year.

You are required to enter your personal details on the online form.

Your membership will begin on the day of acceptance of your application to become a member and having paid the required amount of the subscription.

You can end your membership any time by giving at least one month's notice in writing to the club secretary. You are not entitled to enter the club if your membership has ended except as a visitor.

LCC can end your membership any time by giving notice in writing (ideally by way of email). LCC is entitled to exercise discretion to end your membership having regard to conduct considered to be unfitting.

Memberships are not refundable or transferable.

Members must be over the age of 18 years. You may be required to provide proof of your age. Children and those under the age of 18 years are not permitted to be members.

You must pay your membership fee annually in advance (in other words, every year for the year that follows).

You (and all other members) must pay the relevant yearly subscription fee in one single payment as soon as you are accepted for membership.
